

Hello All,

The Williamsburg Warriors have awaken us from hibernation. It is time for every songwriter to fill the airwaves with sounds of the the neighborhood by contributing a song to The Williamsburg Songwriting Competition's compilation: Project Defend Brooklyn.

This is not a competition, there is no entry fee or lyrical requirement for this one. However, this will be the Compilation of all compilations... a call to arms, defend Brooklyn, speak your mind, tell the world why you love this neighborhood and why you don't want 40 story complexes towering gloom over your creative environment. We made this neighborhood desirable to them so don't let them take it away. Voice your opinions through music.

Submission Deadline: Monday April 11th

Party: Monday April 25th @ Savalas Bar (Bedford btwn Grand & S.1st)
Listening party with CD and T-shirt give aways to all contributors.

Submission Requirements (please print this out and submit it with your CD)

1) your song must be burned to CD.

2) Please include required information:

- a) Artist Name: _____
- b) Song Title: _____
- c) Contact Name: _____
- d) Phone number: _____
- e) Email: _____

3) Sign: _____ Date: _____

I agree to allow the Williamsburg Songwriting Competition to publish my song as part of this CD compilation and to distribute the compilation freely for purposes of creating awareness to the political cause surrounding the waterfront rezoning plan. I also agree to allow the Williamsburg Songwriting Competition to use my song for promotional purposes. Songwriter/Artist holds the copyright to the song and and reserves all other rights not specified above unless agreed upon in writing by both parties. All personal information other than song title and artists name will remain strictly confidential.

(I cannot include your entry without a signature. Thank you.)

4) Drop-off: There will be a drop box at Savalas Bar (Bedford btwn Grand & S.1st). Leave your submission with the bartender before Monday April 11th.